Explore the history of a uniquely American art form: country music. From its deep and tangled roots in ballads, blues and hymns performed in small settings, to its worldwide popularity, learn how country music evolved over the course of the twentieth century. The series, directed by Ken Burns, features never-before-seen footage and photographs, plus interviews with more than 80 country music artists. No one has told the story this way before.

“The Rub” (Beginnings - 1933)
Saturday, March 7 at 2pm
See how what was first called "hillbilly music" reaches new audiences through phonographs and radio, and launches the careers of country music's first big stars, the Carter Family and Jimmie Rodgers. Also airs on Sunday, March 8 at 12am

“Hard Times” (1933-1945)
Saturday, March 7 at 4:30pm
Watch as Nashville becomes the heart of the country music industry. The genre grows in popularity during the Great Depression and World War II as America falls in love with singing cowboys, Texas Swing and the Grand Ole Opry's Roy Acuff. Also airs on Sunday, March 8 at 2:30am

“The Hillbilly Shakespeare” (1945-1953)
Sunday, March 8 at 2pm
See how the bluegrass sound spreads in post-war America, and meet honky-tonk star Hank Williams, whose songs of surprisingly emotional depth are derived from his troubled and tragically short life. Also airs on Monday, March 9 at 1am

“I Can't Stop Loving You” (1953-1963)
Sunday, March 8 at 4:30pm
Travel to Memphis, where Sun Studios artists Johnny Cash and Elvis Presley usher in the era of rockabilly. Ray Charles crosses America's racial divide by recording a country album. Patsy Cline shows off Music City's smooth new Nashville Sound. Also airs on Tuesday, March 10 at 12am

The Sons & Daughters of America (1964-1968)
Saturday, March 14 at 2pm
See how country music reflects a changing America, with Loretta Lynn speaking to women everywhere, Merle Haggard becoming "The Poet of the Common Man" and audiences looking beyond race to embrace Charley Pride. Also airs on Sunday, March 14 at 11:30am

Will The Circle Be Unbroken? (1968-1972)
Saturday, March 14 at 4:30pm
Learn how country music responds to a nation divided by the Vietnam War, as Army captain turned songwriter Kris Kristofferson sets a new lyrical standard, and artists like Bob Dylan and the Byrds find a recording home in Nashville. Also airs on Monday, March 15 at 1am

Are You Sure Hank Done It This Way? (1973-1983)
Sunday, March 15 at 1:30pm
