Part 2 - “An American Crusade” airs Tuesday, August 11 at 7pm

A failed actor, Ronald Reagan became a passionate ideologue who preached a simple gospel of lower taxes, less government and anti-communism. One by one, his opponents underestimated him; one by one, Reagan surprised them, rising to become a president who always preferred to see America as a beacon of freedom to a world in need of rescue.

Part 1 follows the influence of family, religion, and anti- communism on Ronald Reagan, from his youth in Illinois and his rise and fall in Hollywood to his stormy governorship of California and his triumphant ascendancy to the presidency in 1981.

Part 2 focuses on Reagan’s battle with the Soviet Union and his resolve to end the Cold War, the Iran-Contra affair and his disclosure, five years after leaving the White House, that he had Alzheimer’s disease.

2 JULY/AUGUST 2020 - HIGHLIGHTS

General Manager’s Message

I hope this finds you all health and enjoying the warm summer weather here in the beautiful northland! It seems that the safest activity we can all do right now is to get out and enjoy the great outdoors. Whether it’s a walk around town, a bike ride, or a fishing or camping outing, summer is short, so if you’re able, get out there and take advantage of it.

We just completed our June fund drive and we were very pleased to have ended this fund drive up from last June. A BIG thank you to everyone who made a contribution in support of our programming and helped to make this fundraiser a success. I think the success of this fund drive is due to the fact that people have relied on and appreciated our in-depth local, regional, and national coverage of the crazy times we’re all living through. Having a local television station with a local news department that produces a nightly newscast is something this is very unique in rural America. Your support has made this possible, so again, many thanks!

This month I’d like to give you a glimpse into our organization and some of the challenges we’re facing over the next five years. Like all business, our staff is what makes our business successful. We’ve been very fortunate over the years to have an excellent staff. Many have stayed with us for 20, 30, and even 40+ years. Also like most businesses, we’re facing a “changing of the guard” over the next five years. Many key staff will be retiring and this will create a big challenge for our organization. Staff planning to retire over the next five years are Jackie Hanson, who manages our finances; Tom Lembrick, who works with technology; Ron Jonson, who does our design, promotions, and marketing; Dan Hegstad, our central MN station manager and business support representative; and me (Bill Sanford) who is the CEO and manages our technology. These are all long term and highly skilled staff members. Each has their own area of expertise with little or no overlap of responsibilities with other staff members. This just adds to the challenge of filling their roles when these key staff members retire. We’re certainly not unique in facing this problem. Most businesses are dealing with key staff retirements due to the retiring “baby boomer” generation. To help plan for this, I’m working with our board of directors on succession planning with the goal of minimizing the disruption to the organization as we make these difficult staffing transitions.

When any organization is facing significant leadership changes, there are concerns voiced by the stakeholders. Questions about future direction and focus of the organization tend to come up a lot. As we look forward, the one thing that will always keep us relevant is a commitment to compelling LOCAL content. Netflix, Disney+, Hulu, and all the other shiny new streaming services are never going to produce local news and local programming on a regular basis in our rural region. People will always want to know not only the local news from their own home town, but the local arts, culture, and history as well. Providing this important local connection is what will keep Lakeland PBS relevant long term. Our board, our staff, and I have always remained committed to this and I don’t see that changing any time soon regardless of staffing changes here at Lakeland PBS.

Also, since I mentioned shiny new streaming services, I’m very pleased to report that our main channel, Lakeand Prime, will be available as a 24x7 live web stream on our web site at lptv.org and on pbs.org before the end of the summer. In addition, PBS will be rolling out our local live web stream to all the various platforms that have the PBS video app in the near future. We get requests for a live web stream of our channel all the time, so I’m very pleased that we will soon providing you with yet another way to enjoy watching Lakeland PBS.

As always, thank you for your generous support!

Bill Sanford
