2 OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 2020 - HIGHLIGHTS

General Manager’s Message

Fall is here and there’s a chill in the air hinting of what’s to come. While I’m not excited for winter to get here, I do enjoy the fall. The lack of bugs, along with the crisp air and beautiful fall colors make it a wonderful time of the year.

It’s great to hear that we may be getting closer to the release of a COVID-19 vaccine. Large scale testing is beginning on a few candidate vaccines. If the testing goes well, production could begin later this fall. It feels like the world is on hold right now, so it will be wonderful to get back to a new normal. Whatever that new normal looks like, it’s going to be better than the pandemic we’re all living with now.

The November elections seem to be at the top of everyone’s conversations. When I talk to folks about the elections, it seems that everyone feels that there is more at stake with this year’s election than any in past memory. Lakeland PBS is here to help you be more informed. In October, we have a great deal of timely and important programming related to the elections. The NewsHour will be producing primetime specials for the three Presidential Debates on September 29 and October 15 and 22, and the Vice Presidential Debate on October 7. Then on election night November 3rd, both the NewsHour and Lakeland News will be providing in-depth coverage throughout the evening. I also want to point out one program in particular. Frontline has a two-hour special called “The Choice 2020 - Trump vs. Biden.” This program provides an unprecedented and in-depth look at both President Trump and Joe Biden. This special aired in September and airs again on Tuesday, October 27 at 8 p.m. and on Monday, November 2 at 8 p.m. If you missed it in September, you won’t want to miss it again.

Locally, Lakeland PBS wants to help our region’s citizens be more informed about our local State candidate’s positions on important issues. To accomplish this, Lakeland PBS will again be partnering with the Bemidji Pioneer, the Brainerd Dispatch, and KAXE radio to produce and broadcast a series of State House and Senate race debates that will air throughout the week of October 5th during prime time. We will be producing these debates virtually, so the candidates and panelists will be connecting from home via Zoom to keep everyone safe. That said, the debates will still follow a traditional debate format with a full hour dedicated to each of the races we’re covering, for a total of eleven hours. These debates will include state House district 2A, 2B, 5A, 5B, 9A, 10A, and 10B. In the Senate, we will cover districts 2, 5, 9, and 10. Please take a look at the debate schedule in this edition of Highlights for the week of October 5th and be sure to tune in to hear from the candidates that cover your home region so you learn more about their views on the important local issues that directly affect you and your family. Be an informed voter so you can make your vote count!

In addition to state races, we will also feature one Congressional race from our region. On Thursday, October 8 at 7 p.m., we will air a debate for the Minnesota 7th Congressional District with incumbent Congressman Collin Peterson vs. Michelle Fischbach. This is a hotly contested race and should be very informative.

Last month I let you all know that you would soon be able to watch Lakeland PBS live online. Our new livestream service is now available and it looks great! You can watch our Lakeland Prime broadcast channel live on our web site at lptv.org/livestream. You can also watch our livestream on a Roku streaming player by downloading the PBS Video app. In addition, even more ways of watching are in the works including both an updated Android and iOS PBS Video app for tablets and phones.

In closing I want to let you know that our September pledge drive was successful due to the generosity of our supporters and we were able to surpass our total raised in September of 2019. Our local fundraising is more important than ever right now due to reductions in state funding for the coming fiscal year.

As always, thank you for your generous support!
