General Manager’s Message

I’ve got some exciting news for you this month. After an extensive nationwide search and interviews of candidates from around the country, our Board of Directors has selected Jeff Hanks to serve as the next CEO of Lakeland PBS. Jeff was an internal candidate and has worked at Lakeland PBS for over 28 years. He first started his career here as a master control operator back when he was attending Bemidji State University where he received a bachelor’s degree in Mass Communications. Jeff worked his way up through the organization in the broadcast operations and programming departments. His most recent role has been as our Programming and Production Manager where he was responsible for our broadcast schedule and managed all of our local productions other than Lakeland News. Please join me in welcoming Jeff into his new role here at Lakeland PBS. Jeff will be taking over as CEO in mid June.

After I step down as CEO, since I also serve as Director of Engineering, I will be staying on (less than 40 hours per week) in my Director of Engineering role through 2021. We have a big infrastructure project that begins this fall and I want to help organize and get this started before I leave. This will also give Jeff and the board time to determine how best to cover my technology duties going forward.

It’s wonderful to see the pandemic finally subsiding here in the US. At Lakeland PBS, we’re all now back working in the office and it’s a joy to reconnect face-to-face with co-workers. We’re fortunate to have a family-like workplace environment here and I really missed the day-to-day interaction we had with everyone while we were working from home during the worst of the pandemic. Now with the pandemic subsiding, we are looking to get back out into the community so we can interact with the public again. Our first event that we plan to participate in is the Beltrami County Fair coming up later this summer. We plan to have a booth and hope you will stop by to meet and visit with our staff. Let’s hope that we stay on track with the recovery so that large summertime gatherings like this can be a reality.

It’s so sad to see so much of the rest of the world still struggling with the pandemic. I certainly hope that the big pharmaceuticals will release their patent rights and allow other companies and countries to produce the COVID-19 vaccine in quantity so that the rest of the world can get vaccinated so we can end the suffering and get control of the pandemic worldwide.

In closing, I’ll say farewell as the CEO. It’s been a privilege leading this wonderful organization for so many years. I certainly have mixed feelings about stepping down. While I’m very much looking forward to the next chapter in my life, I’m also already thinking about all the things that I’ll miss about the job. By far the biggest thing that I’ll miss is the people. I have been very fortunate to work with so many great people here at Lakeland PBS. This includes excellent staff and fantastic board and community advisory council members throughout my entire tenure. In addition, I’ve had the opportunity to work with wonderful colleagues in public media from across the state, region, and country. It has also been a great personal joy to meet so many individual and business supporters of Lakeland PBS over the years. I’ll always be proud of all we’ve accomplished working together. Please know that this exceptional enterprise called public media wouldn’t be possible without people just like you.

As always, thank you for your generous support!

Saturday, June 19 at 1pm

The world is in turmoil and Americans are the unhappiest they’ve been in 50 years. With millions sickened from COVID-19 and more than 300, 000 Americans dead in a global pandemic that brought social isolation, grief, fear, and an economy in tatters mixed with anti-racism protests after the killing of George Floyd and the ongoing political divide, we’ve been brought to our emotional knees. As a nation, we’re feeling so stressed and unhappy, it sparked a dramatic rise in the number of new prescriptions for antidepressants, anti-anxiety medications and sleep aids during and after the pandemic. Depression, the opposite of being happy, tripled in just few months in early 2020, from 8.5%, which was already up from the prior decade, to a horrifying 27.8%.

In this program, psychiatrist Dr. Daniel Amen and his wife Tana Amen, an ICU nurse will show you how to dragons that cause these problems to help you feel happier, more positive and more in control of your own emotions.

Also airs Saturday, June 5 at 11:30pm; Wednesday, June 16 at 12am

2 JUNE 2021 - HIGHLIGHTS

Bill Sanford

Jeff Hanks

A Message From Our Lakeland PBS Board Chair Ryan Welle

As announced earlier this year, after 35 years, 20 years as President/CEO of Lakeland PBS, Bill Sanford will be retiring in 2021. First as President/CEO in June and then his Director of Engineering position at December 31st. Bill experienced and guided us through numerous challenges, growing pains, and changes during his tenure; a list that’s too long to write for this newsletter. Suffice to say, the loss of any employee is an undertaking, but losing one of Bill’s stature and capability is flat out daunting.

In an effort to locate and attract a suitable replacement, the Board of Directors engaged NETA Consulting, a public media executive recruiting firm, to commence a nationwide search. After months of searching and reviewing dozens of applications from across the country, the Board ultimately chose to stay close to our roots with the selection of home-grown talent, Jeff Hanks. Jeff started his Lakeland PBS journey in 1990 as a volunteer while attending Bemidji State University and has worked his way up to Programming and Production Manager, a position he has held for the last 15 years. Jeff stood out among a strong pool of candidates for his knowledge of station operations and a proven track record of management acumen; not to mention a deep passion and dedication to public broadcasting, particularly Lakeland PBS.

Of equal encouragement we’re blessed that Lakeland PBS is on sound financial footing and that we continue hold one of the most seasoned and capable collection of employees of any public broadcasting station across the country. Individuals such as Dennis Weimann, Tom Lembrick, Glenn Mclean, and Ron Johnson to name a few. Individuals that collectively have over 100 years of experience at Lakeland PBS and the passion to keep us relevant for generations to come. These folks, coupled with Jeff’s leadership, is what gives me great comfort that we’re on a clear path of continued stewardship for our members.

Please join me in congratulating both Bill, for his upcoming retirement, and Jeff for his promotion to CEO. As members, we simply can’t thank Bill enough for his years of dedication and commitment to local broadcasting. We’re sad to see him go, but we are lucky that Bill understood that what matters most is not his personal achievements, but the blueprints of success for those he’s leaving behind. As a Board, we’re excited to watch Jeff turn those pages.

Lastly, thank you for your membership and for the opportunity to be of service. We’re here for you and, without your support, we certainly wouldn’t be where we are today.

Ryan Welle
